

JOINING INSTRUCTIONS

for Field Sessions

Dear Delegate,

we are looking forward to your joining us for the upcoming Field Session organized as an integral part of the 11th World Environmental Education Congress! To make your stay pleasant and comfortable, we have prepared a summary of important information for you:

Date 18 March 2022

Field session name Folk traditions and traditional crafts in environmental education

Meeting point Prague Congress Centre – PEDESTRIAN ZONE at Entrance No 7

Meeting time 9 a.m.

Dress code Casual (also see What to take with you)

What to look for Beautiful and inspiring city - but still rural and natural - eco-centre Toulcuv dvur, Prague's largest and oldest environmental education centre. Discussions on the possible contribution of folk traditions to environmental education, examples of programmes and activities for school children, and a walk around the centre, including 10 hectares of natural area, historical buildings, granary, wetland, education animal farm, apiary, etc. And two lecturers who are proud to take you around 😊

Nicole Morel Shramm and Wendy Quetzal Morel will join us during the day with their workshop Designing artistic workshops for non-artists in the context of Education for Sustainable Development.

What to take with you Comfortable cloth and shoes suitable also for outdoor activities in our eco-centre. Note that there might be mud on the paths... The temperature may be between 0 and 15 °C in the middle of March in Prague. Rather watch the weather forecast before coming, and dress accordingly to secure your own temperature comfort.

Refreshment On-site refreshments will be prepared, including a sustainable coffee break and vegetarian lunch.

Return point and time We plan the programme on-site in our eco-centre from 10 a.m. till 4 p.m. It takes approx. 45 min. to get to the centre of Prague from Toulcuv dvur by public transport.

Organiser contact details Martina Chvátalová chvatalova@toulcuvdvur.cz Cell phone: 00420 603 830 478

In case of any special need on-site, please call Mr Michal Medek, the Field Session Coordinator +420 604 863 167

We look forward to welcoming you to Prague!!
